DETAILED ACTION

This Office action is responsive to communication received 11/19/2003 – application papers filed.

This application is a CIP of 09/885,965, filed 06/22/2001. With respect to the content of this alleged CIP application, the guidelines set forth in MPEP §201.08 are being applied.

Claims 1-6 are pending.

This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

Claims 1-6 are objected to under 37 CFR §1.75(a) for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter that the applicant regards as his invention or discovery.

As to claim 1, in line 1 of each of the second, third and fourth paragraphs of claim 1, the term "A" should be changed to a lower case letter --a-- . The fifth paragraph in claim 1 should begin as --wherein a golf player may look at... -- . Also in paragraph 5, the language "said angle indicating device having efficiency for a golf player to enhance striking stability" is grammatically confusing and may simply be eliminated.

As to claim 2, line 3, what is an "obvious" mark? Why not simply say that the top is provided with a mark.

As to claim 3, line 2, here again, the term "obvious" is confusing and may simply be eliminated.

Art Unit: 3711

As to claims dependent 4-6, these claims share the objections of independent claim 1.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See Figures 4 and 5 in Brandell. Note Figure 5 in Liljequist. Observe Figures 7 and 11-13 in Marshall. See Figure 1 in Spiegel. Note the gage in Figure 1 of Collins. See Figure 1 in Lamb. Observe Figure 2 in Plese. Blasing shows an indicator, of interest. Note Figure 4 in Hollopeter. Lejeune shows an arrangement in the top surface of a club head, of interest.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
